Star’s Note: Lady Portia is describing the huge changes that were made by the presence of the crystals, which are brought from locations all over the world, to our annual Gem, Mineral, and Fossil Show which happens each year during the first two weeks of February, in our city of Tucson, Arizona. For a more detailed description of this occurrence, and the significance of it, please see our article, "The Immensity of What Is Now Occurring in Tucson, Arizona, and Its Effects on the Entire Planet," authored by Star and the Beings of Light.

Channeling Begins:

You have so much work ahead of you, all of you! We are going to do some work with you tonight because you have all been through tremendous energies that have come into this place (Tucson, Arizona), because of the Gem Show which is here -- all of these crystals! Not to mention the events that some of you have gone to with the medium Hoyt Robinett, in these tremendous energies where we have made changes within those of you who were in those rooms.

So know this, if your bodies are showing these symptoms that you need to rest, we would urge you to rest – because all of you, even if you are not feeling sick or under the weather now, you have all been through great changes with the tremendous crystal energy which has come into this town. And we have used this for transformation for Earth – this is how big this event truly is. It goes far beyond the United States – this is a world event, though few hold this perspective about it. Yet, since we are able to see the Light from space of such events -- the Light from this event, I will tell you, can be seen from space. It is that significant for Earth!

So those of you who have come to this place, realize, and respect and acknowledge the needs of your physical vehicles now at this time, because there were so many of the, how should we put this, the Star Nations, I call them the Light Angels – those who assist from far beyond your planet – and there have been so many of these that have come forth and have been present, have been with you, have been running energy through these vortexes in this city, that this is not the same place as it was before this event. And those of you who have been fortunate enough to come from afar and to be here for this, welcome, and we expect that we will be seeing more of you in this place, because the drawing power of the energies which are here now, not to mention what is coming, you see, it is exponential -- what is happening in this place -- because of the tremendous healing vortex of energy which is already established here! And this has been expanded, it has been refined, it is running such a higher frequency of energy – and the Light is quite radiant from this place! And I do not expect that this will stop, you see. It will only grow. So many will be drawn to this place, and you are the forerunners of much of this – for you recognize the ascended energies which are in this place, which are available to enlightened ones such as yourselves who see the Light, who can perceive what is happening here. You feel different when you are here, and you know that this is true. We are delighted to have your presence with us this evening, for you bring tremendous gifts of knowledge and presence which will be accepted and integrated into all that is allowed to unfold within this place in what you call "future time."

So you see, nothing is ever lost, nothing ever fades – it only shifts, and changes, and evolves. Keep that in mind, dear ones, because some of you go into such fear and sadness over Earthly events – that what I would tell you is to hold the higher sight of your soul presence of all of this which knows that you are eternal – all of you. Nothing can change your inner presence! Nothing can reduce your Light upon the Earth! So do not be concerned about many of these events which sometimes cause one to feel as if everything has gone awry, and there is no power within one to set things aright. And I know that all of you have your moments when you feel this.

And so what I am wanting to say to you this evening is that, yes, there will be the challenges coming upon all of you this year, because you will have to change, you will have to shift. The enormous changes that are coming upon your planet, upon your cities, your governments, your monetary systems, all of this, it will require momentous adaptive abilities within each of you. And the more that you can avail yourselves of the higher perspective, and not cling to outer physical, Earthly circumstances of your lives, or what you have become accustomed to experiencing, so much the better. You must get used to change – and this will be a process for some of you -- because, as I have observed, humans are not fond of change! But, happily, this is the time when change is going to be the greatest benefit to you that you can possibly find. And so I would urge you to take a new direction with this: open your minds and realize that – and you can even say to yourself, "Now change is easy for me," and it can be just that simple. It does not have to be difficult. I am trying to make this easy for all of you, you see, and I am talking you into this – I have a good audience here!

And it can be easy for each of you, even the ones of you that have fought change tooth and nail! Yes, some of you have resisted, and made it very difficult for yourselves, but this is all based on mental beliefs – old, changeable mental beliefs – and all that you need to do is simply change your mind. You see how easy that is! I have changed my mind many times – I find it to be easier and easier – for, as I see more Light, and discern on a higher frequency, and am in possession of more informed information, it is wisdom, is it not, to change?

And this is what I would like all of you to think about – not only tonight, but on an ongoing basis -- to be prepared for all that is going to be coming in your year of 2013 -- because this will be the year of change. And you will see this coming upon you, your entire society, more and more each day as this year progresses. Many will be very disorganized by this process: there will be violence, there will be fear – but this does not need to touch you – and that is why I am speaking to each of you this evening.

Go with the changes that you feel must be made -- from your heart -- within your lives. All of you know what to do; you are not beginners with this! Trust, trust yourselves, and trust that you know what to do – for you do! And act on the inspiration from Dr. King and others that we may bring before you, to bring the higher thoughts to your minds, to release you from the prospect of living a life controlled by fear.

It is not needed, dear ones, and we are going to bring you some assistance this evening to deal with some of this -- as these beautiful ones of the Light that have been previously mentioned, are now, and I'm sure you can feel their presence, as they are stepping in close and beginning to form this Chalice of their love and devotion for each of you. For they know each of you by name. Jeshua, The Magdalene, Mother Mary – they are the healing presence within this room that now, by their grace, and love, and power, steps forward to enfold you in their Light – with the great blessing of their Illumined presence upon the Earth.

So I shall close and allow their blessing to continue.
