Allow your divinity to fully come into your heart center and anchor there. We will be assisting you with this while you are sleeping -- this is very easy for us to do -- to assist you with the anchoring of this connection to your higher self, your soul presence, to anchor your soul within your heart center -- and this is what expands the heart.

This is not difficult, but many people do not even think to attempt this now -- or even recognize the need to ask for our assistance for this to happen. So this is very good that you are consciously working with us and that we are able to give you these messages and this encouragement -- to let you know that you are divine, you are gods and goddesses, all of you. You are already on this level -- all you need to do is to allow it to be anchored within your physical form. This is the final step of all of this. (They are showing us these pictures of everything that we have all done to prepare ourselves for this moment on the Earth.) If you had not already accomplished this many, many times before you would not be sitting here now -- someone else who was accomplished in this would be sitting here -- so don't doubt yourselves! This is why you have volunteered to come and your application has been accepted. It is because you are accomplished in doing this. You have done this in many other timeframes, so it will be very, very easy for you to do it in the here and now. And this is what is going to make everything else possible.

Your job now is to hold the energies of the heart center as the outer forms and structures that have held mankind in tyranny and oppression begin to crumble and fall -- not to go into fear, not to go into judgment, but to just let it be. Let all of these changes come about in the outer world while you are in absolute stillness, in the very center of who you are -- holding the Light of your own Divinity for the blessing of all, to have this radiate out and change the world in an instant, in the twinkling of an eye, as it has been described by those who know well of this process, having done it many times themselves. We all support you in this process to change the world, to save the planet Earth from what would have been her destruction -- but, yet, to raise her up into the hands of Light, of Angels, into the frequencies of the divine by your devotion, dear ones, by your love it shall be done.

You speak of the miracles that I have done! The miracles that you will do -- this is truly beautiful! And it shall be done by your hand, and your heart, and your mind as given in love to humanity, to your fellow man, in these frequencies of unconditional love -- and you are learning this, and I will show you the way. It is not difficult! Do not worry -- you are all capable of this, and it will be easy because you are all such extremely loving and giving beings. You just need a little help to feel comfortable in this place, and I shall stand beside each of you and give you this necessary help and encouragement -- to let you know that it is not difficult because it is a part of who you are -- to give from the deepest parts within you. And it shall be done in this way, by my heart as well.

We shall be supporting each of you in this frequency of divine love. You are blessed, you are loved, of the Most High – have no doubt of this! And you shall do the miracles as I did, and it shall not be difficult. You are doing them already, you simply have not seen what you are doing, dear ones! Trust! Trust opens the door to the miracles within you – and as you hold to this Light you shall be lifted beyond all fear and doubt, and you shall rise, even as if you were lifted on the wings of angels, effortlessly – beyond everything you have ever known, into the transcendent light of a new day.

Blessings to each of you! We stand with you all. The Magdalene, Mother Mary, all of us, we stand with you daily -- to do your work – standing beside each of you, that you may trust and know who you are.

Our blessings and our love go with each of you eternally.

Adieu beloveds!
