Blessed Ones of the Light,

We are with you this evening and it is our joy to bring you these gifts, as we have been allowed to bring before you this evening -- for we are the Triad of the energies as you have been speaking of (Jeshua/Jesus, Mary Magdalene, and Mother Mary), and so we speak as One to you this evening to allow you to know how deeply you are loved -- and held within our Heart Flame which is blazing within the force field of this room, to continue the healing energies as have been given to those of you here, those who are at a distance, and all who are receiving these words. Know that all you need do at any time during your days or nights is to effortlessly reach up in your consciousness through the veils of pain or sorrow which seem so many times to bind your consciousness into the lower realms which contain this pain or sorrow.

But know that no longer does this need to be your experience upon Earth -- because she has changed beyond the sight of your mortal eyes. Great gifts have been given to the planet you think of as Earth! Great gifts of transcendent Light are now being anchored by these beautiful celestial events which you know about (the Ring of Fire Solar Eclipse on the New Moon of May 20th, 2012, and the Lunar Eclipse on the Full Moon of June 4th, 2012), to transform all within the body of Earth back into Light. So as she now has this magnificent healing which is coming upon her and being held deep within the Heart of Mother Earth, know that this same Light is coming upon each of you effortlessly for your healing and transcendence into the Light-- for each of you to be raised up, as it were, beyond this veil of tears where many have dwelt for far too long -- and they are being raised up in our Hands of Light, as are you, this night. Beloved ones, because you have asked, because you have opened your hearts to those of us in Spirit and invited that this work be done, yet in this way we are able now to bring this miracle of hope and love deep within the heart of each one of you, Beloved Ones of the Light!

You are held in this moment within the radiance of the Heart Flame created by the three of us as we stand round about each of you, to hold this magnificent Light of our love. The transcendence of this healing Light now penetrates deep within the Heart Flame of each of you, igniting this now into the full brilliance of who you are, for each one of you individually, to bring you back into the conscious memory of what is Truth and what is real for each one of you in your individual experience of your own personal reality upon Earth.

We are blessed by the Most High to be allowed now to grant this gift to each of you, through the love of our hearts, coming into this place and being anchored through the Flame of Enlightenment which blazes within the center of the circle. You are Divine! And the knowledge of this is now being anchored within your hearts and within your minds -- to blaze there like a living flame for all the remainder of your days upon this Earth. And, when once again you are translated back into the spiritual realms, you will bring the memory of the miracle of this night when you once again remembered the Divinity of your soul and its full presence in the Light of God!

I am the Angel of the Most High, and I speak for these Ones, as have been said, for they may not come fully into human form -- as their energies, when together, are too great for this. And so I speak to convey their love, their blessing, and the radiance of this moment where you come face-to-face with the Truth of who you are. You are blessed in their sight and in their love -- you are held within the radiance of their Light, and you are made whole within these Divine frequencies even by His Light (Jeshua/Jesus), as you have asked that it be done in this way.

Blessings of the Most High Living God upon each one of your souls -- that you may be held during the remainder of all your days upon Earth in the knowledge and the full remembrance of this Truth.

It is done, you are beloved of the Light, and you will live forever in the knowledge of this Light and of this Truth.

I bid you Adieu
