Beloved Ones,

We are with you this evening, myself, Jeshua, Mary Magdalene, and Mother Mary, at this Christmastime upon your planet, as you remember the beauty of the love that is within your hearts, and that is why we have come to you this evening, because we see the beauty of the Heartflame that is being ignited this night and always, within each one of these precious souls that are here in attendance. But this goes far beyond your group, for, as has been said, and you know this, you are able to act as surrogates for ones that you love throughout the Earth, and that is what is being done this evening.

The energies that we are being allowed to anchor here go far beyond this room to bless, to heal, to uplift the downtrodden, and to remind the forgotten souls that they are beloved of Creator's presence. They are created of the Living God, and this Light never fades completely from their consciousness regardless of how they might be surrounded in circumstances of darkness. Yet, once again we bring this Light, to remind each of you of the Divinity within your hearts, of the Divinity that shines within your consciousness, of what is possible for each of you, the heights that you may yet reach in this incarnational cycle for each of you. Do not forget the Divinity that is within you! Do not forget the promises that we have made to each of you – to re-ignite this flame within your heart that you may have use of it! That you may learn the use of this!

This would be my purpose here this evening with you, to remind each of you that you are Divine! No matter how you have suffered in this life, you have never lost this Divine Connection, this spark of Divinity within your heart! And we come, myself, and the one known as the Magdalene, and also that one whose heart encompasses all on Earth, that you know as Mother Mary. We come to encompass you in our love, and to remind you, each of you, how beloved you are at this time of Christmas, that this spark may be re-ignited within your hearts, and the memory of this may yet burn within your minds, that your minds may be cleansed of all worry, all thoughts of pain or trauma, that you may release all the suffering that you have known, and give into my Hands of Light, all these memories of pain and the torment of your souls, that it may be no more. That here, now, in this moment of Oneness with all of us, you may feel, as all of this is transmuted into Light, as it is being done now, even as you release all of this into the magic of the Oneness that you are all remembering now.

We stimulate these memories within each of you, because you have all known this before, in many, many lifetimes, many places where you have been. It is the memory which is returning now to your souls, to your consciousness. It is the Light of God, of the Father and the Mother presence of All that is Divine, that is now reuniting with your heart, and lifting you up above the memories of pain or suffering! This need not BE any more for you, you have all lifted up high enough that we can now assist you to transcend up, above this level of consciousness! You do not need to suffer any longer upon the Earth! This is my message to you this evening – it is to open the door of the Oneness to my heart and invite that you may, once again, be One with me, as I am the Doorway to the Father-Mother God, as I sit before you, holding this Light and giving this invitation, to be One, once again, with the Divinity that is within each of you, and to have this be formed into a Oneness, into a wholeness with the larger Divinity that you know as God, or Creator.

Many stand round about you, ready to assist this process, this gift of Spirit for each of you, which we humbly offer into your Hands of Light, that you may take our hands, that you may accept the promise of oneness, yet, upon Earth, and while you are still within physical form. It may be done in this way, because of the heightened energies upon Earth, which have happened recently, that have allowed me to offer this oneness to you now, where you will be lifted up into levels previously unknown to you. It may be done in this way. This is the promise, this is the gift, this is the opportunity for you to take the hands of all these beautiful ones who stand round about you now, to open your heart of love to each of them, that they may open their hearts of love to you and fill you with the radiance of their Light. This is our wish for you, that you realize Oneness with Us! That you have opportunity to KNOW, but more than to know, to EXPERIENCE the expansion of energy within each of you as you are made whole, into the Oneness of all that you truly are, and all that you have ever been! This is the gift that we bring you this evening, is the chance to experience oneness with all the parts of who you are, all the parts that may have been lost, all the memories that you have searched for, all the truths that you knew, deep within you, existed somewhere, but you could not find them! We bring all of this to you, this evening, that you may have the return to Divinity and the TANGIBLE experience of this in this moment in your hearts, in this place.

I bring you the blessing of The Most High, feel this divine Light as it enfolds each of you at the magic of Christmastime, because you all focus on this Light at this time of the year, so that I am able to come to you in human form for a moment, to bring you the great love of my heart for each one of you! I have never forgotten each of you! The love for each one of you burns in my heart as I extend this gift, through you, to ALL HUMANITY! As my gift, at your Christmastime, for each one of you that has not forgotten me, as all are lifted up into the Oneness of Divinity, into the energies of the Heaven Realm, and into the blessing of all that is Divine!

The Heavenly Host stand round about you, to continue this blessing and this Light, as it is infused into each of you, that you may walk in Light for the coming year, with all of its challenges upon the Earth! For there will be many, and we come to strengthen you for this, to have you walk in the Christ Light through all Earthly challenges, and to communicate this Light to your friends and neighbors, to have them know that they are not alone! They are not forgotten! They are ONE with all of us, as all of you are! Spread the word of the newness of what MAY BE upon the Earth! Tell your neighbors and your friends that the days of suffering are coming to an end, even as you realize this, even as you awaken the Heartflame within you and REMEMBER the Divinity that beats within your heart which will extinguish the memory of all pain, trauma, and suffering that you have ever known!

You have walked through the Veil of Tears to be my Emissaries upon the Earth! Because you KNOW the Light of the Christ, because you ALL have this BURNING within your hearts, and you must give this to your fellow men, to have them know that I yet LIVE upon the Earth! To bless! To heal! Through EACH of you, as you carry my Light, this Truth, the Spark of Divinity which is within each of you, and is being increased this night, that you may have the use of all your faculties of healing and knowing, that you may speak with KNOWLEDGE AND POWER to all those, of the love that is within your heart.

This is a time upon the Earth, and I would have you know this! This is the MOMENT for which you have come! And that is why we all come to you now, to strengthen you to meet the challenges, to speak the words of Truth that are needed to be heard by those who are in doubt and fear, and do not know the Truth, and do not know that I yet LIVE!

The Blessings of the Most High be upon each of you, as the Angels descend through the atmosphere of Earth, to anchor this great healing and blessing that is coming upon the Earth this night, because you have ASKED, because you are ALL willing to BE the channels of Light, as it returns NOW to Earth, and people begin to remember that they do not need to be in pain any longer, or to suffer, that God is returning to Earth to take possession of this planet in the Radiance of this Light, as it is now brought, and anchored by the Light of God, now, into the breast of Mother Earth, to feel the healing that is now taking place within Earth and humanity, at this, your Christmastime! This is my Gift to each of you from my Heart of Love for each one of you. Do not forget me, but yet, let me live within your heart!

My Blessings to each of you -- and all of us, all those who stand with me, we all bless you in love and healing.

Let it BE DONE!

Amen
