Channel’s Note: These violent events in Paris, France, are an attempt to control worldwide consciousness and, thereby, control the energetic frequencies of Earth herself – by instilling fear – which can disconnect the power circuitry of human beings. As you know, when we allow ourselves to react in fear to this type of violence, the fear response immediately interferes with our connection to our own power source, the Divinity within us. Knowing this, we are free to choose how we will respond to this type of provocation. The Beings of Light bring us the important message at this time that it is our freewill choice whether we will react to this type of thing by going into fear, or whether we will choose to respond by aligning with the Light and remaining firmly rooted in the centerpoint of our consciousness, the heart center – which is always in connection with Divine Love and the Source energies!

The Message from the Ascended Realms

The choice is yours, dearest ones, but you already know the answer! And that is to respond in love – not by loving the violence, but by sending out your love and Light to all beings on this planet, sending your love to the divinity within ALL, in order to bring forth and have this BE the acting force on the Earth. Even now the world is responding to these acts of violence by coming together in love – and each one of you is finding your strength and a sense of solidarity with your fellow human beings – while claiming your right to freedom! You can say to yourselves “We will not be moved from this place! We are aligned with the higher power of Divine Source energy and consciousness, even as the Earth and the consciousness of humanity is being transformed!”

As you know this Truth, you are set FREE in your consciousness! You are not pawns in this game that some are playing – of power – between the energies of love and fear, Light and darkness. You are the Victorious Ones, now come to Earth – to support and realize the birthing of a new consciousness among humanity. You are the leaders of many who would otherwise wander in darkness. Many have lost their way and are now looking, searching for guidance, as to how they might proceed amid the many challenges you all now face.

You, the Light-Bearers for Earth, have the answer for many souls! Do not be silent in this time of need, but shine your Light to all in whatever way you can! You are needed NOW to step forward in the full conscious knowledge of what it is you have come here to do – and to BE – by being a Beacon of Light and Love to all humanity. You have great power to shift the energies on this planet from fear to love. That is what we in the Ascended Realms recognize as your Divine Mission on Earth at this crucial time in her evolutionary progress – when many, who are misguided, would deny the Truth that this planet is destined to be a place of peace, “ruled” only by the power of Love.

We do not send you off to war! Quite the opposite! We require of you only that you maintain your connection to the Light and the energies of the higher realms – for your sustenance and guidance through the many obstacles that you will encounter on this Path to Light. You are the leaders of many – and the inspiration to many who have fallen and struggle in darkness. Extend your Light by shining fearlessly the essence of WHO YOU ARE! You are the sons and daughters of the Divine presence – come to walk through the darkness – as One who carries the Torch of Knowledge, the sacred flame of your own Divinity – not hidden in fear, but carried aloft, proudly and fearlessly, as a Beacon of Light to ALL the Earth! Know that you ARE protected as you serve the Light! Do not fear the darkness, for it must retreat before the Light – this is divine law in the universe. It has ever been so – and so it shall continue to BE!

We in the Ascended Realms support you with all our hearts – and we love you greatly for the work that you are now doing for the Family of Humanity and all the Earth!

You are beloved – and so it is, and forever shall be,

Count Saint Germain and Lady Portia

Channel's Note: Yes, we are the Lightworkers who have come here to transform the Earth and all her life -- by consciously holding the energies of Light! We're not only intelligent and resilient; we are STRONG to our very core. We will not be influenced, controlled, or defeated by those who want to rule through fear! We refuse to be afraid – we choose to align with the power of love rather than to indulge in the vain attempts, as are made by some misguided souls, to rule the world through the love of power over others. Stand for the Light! Take a stand against fear and violence – not through hatred of those defined as "enemies," but by loving and calling forth the Divine Being that we know is within each person on the Earth, even if they do not recognize this Truth.

Why should we choose love as our response instead of reacting in fear or anger, or the desire for revenge, when we see innocent people in Paris, France, and elsewhere being attacked and injured or killed for no other reason than the desire by some to exert power and control over human consciousness? For, truly, this is the motivation of those who carry out these attacks. Hatred and the desire for revenge would lower our energetic frequency and consciousness to levels below where we are effective Lightworkers. When we stay connected with the higher energies of the ascended realms, we have tremendous power and authority in choosing the path for Earth – a path of ascension into the heaven realm energies of peace, beauty, and love. The Earth IS in the process of ascending into the higher fifth dimensional energies – to merge fully and forever with the heaven realms and experience the frequencies of joy, abundance for all, peace, love, and perfect health.

Those who are not choosing to be aligned with Light feel threatened by the course that Earth is taking -- which is to move into the Light and merge with the heaven realm energies. These misguided souls are afraid that they are being destroyed – which is not the case. They are being given the opportunity to move into the consciousness of freedom, peace, and Light! Since they do not understand this, they choose to lash out with violence – trying to create fear in order to disrupt this process.

We, the Lightworkers on Earth, have the power to refuse to allow our consciousness to be controlled by fear – as we stand firmly connected to the love, wisdom, and power of our own Divinity! We are the ones who have come here to create and hold the vibrational frequencies of love – as Earth is being transformed from a planet of fear and darkness which is been known throughout the universe as "The Dark Star" – into a brilliant "Star of Light" – thereby rejoining our many brothers and sisters throughout the universe who have successfully raised themselves and the planets which they inhabit into the fifth dimensional frequencies of the heaven realm energies.

There is only ONE true power – and that is the Divine Source which has created ALL in heaven and Earth! The "power" claimed by those who are not choosing to be aligned with Divine Source energy will ultimately be revealed to be what it is: an attempt to use energy in ways not in alignment with and supported by Divine Source. Why is this allowed? Many are asking this question. This has happened because Earth was originally created as a "free will zone" where each sentient being is free to choose whether they will use the power of their consciousness to create on the patterns of perfection existing in the mind of Creator – or whether they will choose to create the things that their minds can imagine which are not aligned with Divine Source energy. Those who choose to use their abilities to create that which is not in alignment with the Creator's intelligence are doomed to ultimate failure in these attempts to control Earth by controlling human consciousness and maintaining a climate of fear, grief, and sadness.

It is by holding the Light and staying within the frequencies of love – despite all attempts to cause a reaction of fear – that we are successful in completing the resurrection of Earth into Divine consciousness and lifting her into fifth dimensional energies where heaven and Earth once again are ONE. But what IS this "love" that the Beings of Light are talking about?

We Are the "Beloved" – So What Is The Source of Love Within Us?

Divine love shines through us – as a rainbow light – illuminating our presence and our consciousness with the brilliance of Divine Source energy. We are quite literally "prisms of Light" – sending this out to all the world by our presence on Earth! Sometimes we think we are "only human" – but we hold the Majesty of Creator's presence within us, anchored into the Sacred Chalice of Our Hearts.

What is this "love" the Beings of Light are asking us to send out to all the world? It may be difficult oftentimes for people to comprehend what this request means, to "send our love to the world for healing" – since so many of us have been wounded by what we have thought to be "love." As the people of ancient Greek civilizations knew, and expressed so beautifully through their language which had many different words to describe the various expressions of love, it is first of all an energy – not primarily an emotion – though the energy may be experienced in human form as emotion. It is an animating force within our spirit, our soul, which is expressed through the body. The quality of Divine Love acts as a purification for the human being and an inspiration to the soul. It is energy, a force in the universe, which is known to be the cohesive force that holds everything together, including the molecules within us -- even holding the planets on their course through the heavens.

So then, what is this energy and how does it move through the human form? Esoteric writings tell us that the Third Ray of emanation from Divine Source is the crystalline pink Ray of Divine Love, an energy of sacred fire, which enters the human form through the crown chakra at the top of the head and is passed through the right brain hemisphere. It then travels down through the body to be anchored in the heart chakra of the human being. There it acts as one of the energies animating the human form and spirit. It is a source of tremendous energy in the human form! It is a constant blessing from our Creator, capable of healing all maladies known to mankind.

The effects of this tremendous blessing are often overlooked by humanity, since many of us choose to block much of this energy by partially closing the heart center – due to the painful experiences we may have had in interpersonal relationships. We often come to distrust the heart energies and consider this to be the source and cause of many wounding experiences we have had in the expression of human love. Nevertheless, this powerful Source energy is always available to us IF we would choose to accept and use it. This is the energy that the Beings of Light are talking about when they urge us to "send out our love as a blessing and healing for the Earth and all her life." This process is effortless! All that is required of us is to hold the conscious intention to ALLOW love to flow out through us and bless all life!

If we wish, we may open our sacred space and do this in meditation -- and with visualization where we "see" this energy flowing from the Divine Source, through our heart center, and going out to bless the entire Earth and all her life. The FOCUS of our consciousness and our INTENTION to do this are what is needed in order for this process to be effective. The Beings of Light have often said that these Divine Energies must be invoked into the realms of Earth by someone abiding on the Earth. They are not able to do this alone, since they do not have an earthly form with which to fully accomplish this work. This is why it is so vitally important that we work in partnership with the Beings of Light to do this healing work for Earth.

Love is a powerful and transformative energy! It is capable of changing many things on Earth and shifting the balance from the love of power to the power of love within the human experience, as we allow the heart center to open and receive this beautiful gift from the heavenly realms. Through understanding the meaning of the word "love" as the Beings of Light use it, we may then more fully understand what it is that they are requiring of us at this transformative time on Earth. Love is the only energy capable of healing and transforming the Earth at this point in time. That is why the Beings of Light say that it is so important that we understand the full meaning and import of this word and this energy -- as they are referring to it. And they wish us to know that it is with their constant blessing and support that we will continue our work for the creation of the New Earth!
