Lady Portia -- Live Channeling at an Event:

I want to give you a description of what you may find occurring in the year 2020, because there will be many unexpected events happening in the outer world. But what we are mainly focusing upon in this message, is the energy change which will be happening for the planet. This important change may not be obvious to human physical sight, you understand, and that is precisely why we are speaking about this subject today.

There will be great work accomplished to allow the earth to evolve this year, but not all of the important progress that is made may be obvious to people until perhaps the second half of the year, when events start to develop which will begin to give hints of the new direction that is coming for the planet, and specifically for your country, the United States of America.

This process is going to shock many people, because, when it begins to happen, it will happen very fast, and there will be changes in many circumstances. There will be new developments and unexpected occurrences, which are going to redirect the course of many things that are now happening in your society. And we are speaking about the deep political divisions which are bringing up such extreme negativity within the human psyche, precisely here in this country.

The “Battle Royale” Is Happening Now!

This is a drama which has been unfolding for some time, and I’m sure you have all been witnessing the “battle royale” that has been taking place in your political arena. It is very distracting for humanity, and it has been a very controlling influence on the consciousness of the people in this country for quite some time. But what I want to emphasize is that there is a deeper lesson, a very important lesson, that is being delivered to the human population – and not only in this country – because the whole world is watching what is happening here.

You might say that the current political scene is like a drama, similar to a stage play that you might see in the theater. That is what is being allowed to occur in this country, and you are all watching! It is bringing to the surface of human consciousness many deeper, previously-hidden levels of animus, regarding class warfare, racial hatred, political schisms, and many similar things that have been ignored or hidden, in the consciousness of humanity, for a very long time – not only in this country, but across the globe.

Hidden Vaults of Subconscious Energies Opening

This entire process is bringing to the surface many important layers of what has been created over a span of many, many years – and exposing it to the light of day. All of these “hidden vaults” of subconscious energies are now being opened! And this energy is now being released, you see. And so, you are in the midst of a vast opportunity for the release of all of this stored-up energy – which is the result of humanity’s focus upon negative thinking and emotion for centuries of time.

You’ve all heard about the fact that the earth has to release all of this negative energy! It has to be cleared in order for you to stay on track and continue to move forward on your path of ascension. And, as distasteful as this process has been, this has been an important drama that has been played out in order to hold human attention for the purposes of bringing up all of this negative energy that has been repressed for a very long time.

This situation has developed over centuries of time, and so it does not disappear in an instant. A drama such as this is necessary, in order to expose it and to draw it forth, to draw it to the surface, out of the subconscious, so that human beings can examine it with their present day consciousness and decide to delete it – to say “maybe this is not the best path for us all to be taking,” to constantly be fighting one another, and constantly focusing on negativity.

The “Stage Play” Is Successful!

And people are learning the lesson! That is some good news that I can deliver to you today. This drama, the “stage play,” is being successful in causing people to re-examine how they would wish to deal with each other, how they would choose to speak about political issues, and any other disagreements that they might have with each other. And this is significantly changing the course of humanity’s evolution in consciousness in this country! It is “speeding everything up” amazingly! It is revealing huge amounts of this negative energy so that it can be released from the planet through the Victorious action of the Violet Transmuting Flame!

And so, as distasteful as it may be to all of you, I want you to realize the purpose of this process, the important purpose of this, so that you can observe it and appreciate that the process is successfully taking place, and you do not have to become emotionally involved in the drama in order for it to be effective and carry out its purpose. Perhaps the best course of action is to choose to be a “detached bystander/observer.” That stance is what I would recommend to all of you, and indeed, to anyone who is witnessing these activities: this drama, this fighting and negativity -- which is on full display in your Congress, in your courts, and indeed throughout the judicial system. It is quite extensive! It has few boundaries.

In time, it will run its course -- and when it does, that is when the rebirth that I have spoken about previously will begin. This is a “clearing of the air” before the rebirth in consciousness happens. It is certainly going to occur in your country, and it will not be limited to the United States. It will be happening all across the globe, because many times an important thought process begins here in this “cradle of civilization,” and then it is able to spread, and to move from country to country, from population to population.

The Flame of Freedom

So, at this point, the United States is the crucible where the fire of consciousness, “The Flame of Freedom,” is burning brightest! And it is bringing forth these levels from the darkest, deepest recesses of human consciousness – to be seen, to be examined – and ultimately to be consumed in the Flame -- so that people will have an opportunity, if they think that this level of negative discourse is helpful, to examine this belief. And your population is learning a tremendous amount by observing what is happening now!

And so, be at peace with current events, dearest ones, and simply do not watch it if it bothers you. Just allow it to happen in the background of your consciousness, because there is so much healing that is occurring on a deep, deep level in the psyche of humanity as a whole! It is very beautiful to watch what is happening, for those of us that have this particular view, and can see it, perhaps, from a different level than what you are able to perceive, by being here on earth and being a participant or observer in all of this activity.

And that is why I am bringing forth this message, in order to fortify all of you, and to advise against this strenuous “participation in consciousness,” as many people are having, in these very deep levels of negativity that are coming forth now. This is not yours to do! This is not meant to be something that is “on your plate,” as it were, so do not feel that you have to deal with this in any way. And, by all means, do protect your consciousness from it, so that you are not in any way participating in this game of negativity, because it is not benefiting the people who are taking part in this activity. And, in fact, it is being very destructive in their constitution, for many of these people, unfortunately. But they have choice, you see! They could stop doing this at any point. But, if they continue, it is at their peril!

Those of us in the spiritual realms do not control things such as this, but we do observe and take notice, because we understand the higher purpose of all of these activities. And we do like to talk to all of you about this type of thing from time to time – so that you understand that the way is being cleared for the rebirth in consciousness of the United States, and indeed, she is the Flame! She is the Light of the World in many things such as this – as she was designed to be by her conscious Founders, who were very much aware of her purpose in being the “Birthplace of Freedom and a Light to the World!”

You Are All Leading the Way!

And that is what you are now, because you are leading the way – you are “leading the charge,” so to speak! You are on the forefront of moving toward what is coming: this very important rebirth, this shift, this change in consciousness which will sweep the earth at some future point in time, when everyone has “dealt with their demons,” so to speak, and is ready to hear this information, and to take a step forward in consciousness.

However, this process will not occur for many, many years for some of these areas of the earth. But, you see, the United States is moving forward much quicker, because of the enlightenment which exists among the population. And so, you are in many ways the forerunners of all of this activity, and the others will gradually catch up – in time. But important lessons are being learned, for people all over the world, by watching what is going on now in your government.

Just Change the Channel in Your Mind!

So, do not be dismayed by all of this activity that you are witnessing, dearest ones, especially the way that it seems to continue unabated for year after year after year! And we know that you are all getting very tired of watching this – but perhaps just change the channel on your television and in your mind. Do not watch it, if it bothers you, because there are many other things that you will be able to focus your consciousness on that will be much more enjoyable, if not possibly much more beneficial to you, you see, for the purpose of bringing the things into your lives that you are wanting to create – in order to use your creative energies in this way.

Above all else, do not allow yourselves to become tired and exhausted with this constant diet of negativity which is being spewed out of your televisions and news media. Remember, it is only “a drama being played out for a purpose.” And the purpose is for clearing all of this negativity that you see being drawn to the surface by these events. We would call it “a play that is happening on the stage of consciousness.”

The Rays of the Dawn Light Are Approaching!

The exciting thing that will happen, when you get a little further along in this process, will be that you will begin to see the rays of the dawn light peeping above the far horizon in human consciousness! And you will then realize what you have accomplished by allowing this vast clearing process, and this healing, to occur in human consciousness.

And be assured that all of this is absolutely necessary! Nothing can take its place! This has to happen in exactly the way it is happening now, in order for you to get to the next step in your process – which is going to be this rebirth that we were speaking about previously. And that is when you will really enjoy being on earth, because everything will have changed! People will be amazingly more positive, and all of this very deep negativity and debris will be behind you! It will be gone! It will have simply been removed off the earth due to the “passion play” that you are witnessing now.

There has to be a focus for human consciousness, in order for this type of clearing of the deep subconscious to take place. And that is, of course, what we have described to you -- so that you will know the higher purpose for all of this activity – else it would not be happening! Everything that happens on the earth now has a higher purpose. You are that far along in your evolutionary process!

So be assured that whatever negativity you see coming to the surface can be blazed into the Violet Flame and released into Light! You do not need it, and it will not benefit you! And above all, it does not serve you very well to focus your consciousness upon it, and to become emotionally involved in any of this negative activity.

And this would be my word of caution to everyone on the planet: Do not participate in these things emotionally! Do not become emotionally invested when you see these deep strata of heavy negativity emerging. These things have been created by human beings, and buried in the subconscious levels of human consciousness, for eons of time! And so, it all has to be cleared – it is just that simple. But you do not have to experience all of it! And so, just be aware that you can change the channel – you can change to a happy channel, you can change to a constructive channel, a creative channel – because you all have your creativity that is available constantly for your use.

What Would You Like to Create?

So, just decide what you would prefer to focus on now! What would you like to create in your lives? Think about this, because, for all of you, it is a very good time to be creating something new. Yes, it is a very creative time, despite the most obvious things that are happening. You can easily access this level of creativity and be amazingly effective in your lives – just by focusing on what you want to experience in your lives! And we will speak more at a later date about what it's going to be like when you do reach this place which will be the next stage for humanity, in this process of rebirth and attaining higher levels of consciousness -- as you are evolving out of this sense of duality. But it is going to be a long process! There is no doubt about that!

So, in the meantime, just disengage from all the “noise in the background,” and stay in the energies of Light! As they say, “do your own thing,” and don't worry about what other people are doing. That is the best advice we can give you now. Then you will be positioned to make progress, have fun, and enjoy creativity in your lives! Focus on yourselves! This is not selfishness – it is wisdom. Just focus on yourselves and have a good time, because that is when you are most creative and effective!

And so, that would be our message to you today. It has been our great pleasure, to be with you. Blessings to all of you, and much love from all of us here to all of you.

Star's Note:

It is well-known that Count St. Germain was very involved in the founding of the United States of America as a focus of Freedom's Flame, (also known as The Violet Transmuting Flame), through his activity as Christopher Columbus. He also acted as a very strong spiritual influence on the Founding Fathers, especially in the process of drawing up the Constitution of the United States based upon the principles of freedom and equality. Count St. Germain tells us: “I had a pivotal role in drawing up many of the documents for the founding of the United States of America, and also in the process of selecting and advising many of those who would lead this country in her early years.”

What is not so widely known is that Lady Portia, as his Twin Flame, played an equally important role in all of these activities, including, as she says, strongly encouraging this country’s freedom from British control.

As an aside, it may be noted that Count St. Germain, during many of his previous incarnations in Europe, worked tirelessly toward the formation of a United Europe, or what might be referred to as a “United States of Europe,” but it was not to be. He then turned his attention toward the establishment of this concept in a new land which was free of the many old and constricting traditions which had evolved in Europe.
