Live Channeling at an Event:

Greetings, dear ones,

We would urge all of you to really “be at the top of your game” now, because the energies of the earth are very high at this point in time, and this is propelling many dynamic circumstances into operation on the earth. This process is destabilizing many things, and it is destabilizing many people as well!

As a result, many things are going to continue to happen this year which will have the effect of being quite transformative to people, to governmental policies, and to various laws. As a result, the United States will not be the same at the end of this year as it was at the beginning. That is how intense this process, and indeed this controversy, regarding the November 2020 presidential election, is going to become. And that is why we are choosing to speak about this subject today, for the purpose of bringing the awareness that it might be beneficial, and indeed educational, to observe this process as it unfolds. This is true because, if you watch it through the lens of the higher consciousness, then you will be able to not only observe many interesting developments, but you will also have the opportunity to learn quite a few things. For example, you may observe the operation of the human consciousness.

The Schoolrooms of Learning

This is a good example of “being in the schoolrooms of learning,” especially at this particular time on the earth, because there is so much information that is available to people simply through watching, at a very deeply perceptive, as well as highly-conscious level, what is happening. And I am not talking about simply watching the surface level of it, something that you might see by giving an occasional glance to the evening news. But, instead, I am speaking about watching from the level of the “third eye,” so that you are able to observe the very deep levels of the movements of energy and consciousness this year, because then you are going to learn an amazing amount about human nature and the operation of human consciousness.

(Note: The “Third Eye” is the chakra, or energy center, which is located just above and between the physical eyes and is connected with the pineal gland. It is said to be capable of discerning the highest levels of Divine Truth.)

This information would be very helpful to all of you, because some of you struggle quite a bit with not feeling completely human, or wondering if you are indeed a member of the human race – and you know who you are! And so, this is just one of the possibilities for becoming proficient, and possibly quite advanced, in your knowledge of “how things work” on the earth, in matters regarding the functioning of human consciousness, as well as matters related to the operation of your governmental systems, politicians, and political parties.

Both this perspective, as well as the information which you will acquire through this process, will be quite helpful in advancing all of you toward the goal of increasing your level of understanding of many things. In addition, I expect that this process will be beneficial for people who have felt very confused by some of the things that they have witnessed in the political scene in your country. And many people are going to be quite surprised by some of the unexpected events which will occur this year – because there will be a few things happening that are going to really “upset the apple cart” on your political scene, and many people will be quite surprised by these circumstances. Indeed, they will be taken aback!

Everything Will Change!

Many people are going to learn a lot about how politics in this country actually operates, and this will be the beginning of great changes in some of your political systems. When people learn and see the deeper levels of what is propelling some of these actions and political ideas, then this is going to be the impetus for great change – and it will be in a beneficial direction for your country.

This is not going to be some “small thing,” which operates for a few months, and then burns itself out. This is “the lighting of a fire” which will rekindle “The Flame of Freedom” in this country, and you can expect this process to extend throughout your entire society. And this is exactly what is needed at this particular time, because it had begun to burn at a very low ebb, as you may have noticed. Yes, we in the spiritual realms are doing all that we can to steer things toward a different course for this country – to “get her back on track,” as it might be said.

The Spectrum of Polarity – Opposites in Action
Positive vs Negative – Expansion vs Contraction – Freedom vs Control

There is the polarity which exists in all energy systems, as you know. Things work toward one end of the spectrum, and then they begin to return to center point. And that is what has happened with your society in this country! She has wandered out toward one of the ends of the polarity spectrum – towards more control of consciousness, let us say. And so now it is time to come back more towards center point -- and this will take a period of time. This process will not be some “immediate jump” back to center point, because what I am looking at is a span of two or three years to really begin to return to a more balanced state where you are much more secure in being assured of the exercise of your freedoms.

This is true, because there has been, in these hidden systems of governmental power, and all of this type of activity, a dark element which has attempted to take control of some of the aspects of human consciousness through controlling your political process. And that is why we have had to make certain adjustments, by sending in certain people, (certain spiritual beings incarnating into human form), to be the leaders in this “readjustment process.” As you might imagine, they are strongly guided by some of us, not myself personally, but others who are their guides and teachers in the Ascended Realms. And so, do not worry, these individuals do pay attention to guidance from the higher realms, and this is why they are in the positions where they are now – some in positions of power.

Divine Guidance at Work

This entire process was divinely guided, and you can be assured of that, because we are not going to allow this country to devolve into a state which would be dangerous for the population – and that is, indeed, where it was headed! There were many things going on – in, shall we say, the “background” of the political process -- which would have been dangerous to the population in several ways. And so, that has been somewhat corrected. It is still in the process of being fully corrected. As a result, we do not believe that these wars, which certain individuals were trying to promote, are going to occur, given the present political situation that you have now, where these individuals have been removed from their seats of power.

Hidden Power and Knowledge

And so, all of this is a very hidden level of knowledge – hidden from the human population of this country. But those who are of spiritual consciousness have certainly become aware of these things, and they have seen the operation of some of the more spiritual aspects of power at work in your government. And this has been greatly to the benefit of the United States of America, because she is founded on the principles of freedom and equality for her population.

We will see this process instituted to a greater effect through the course of some of the activities which we will be carrying out this year, because, even though we are unseen, we have, of course, great ability to “nudge things in one direction or another.” And that is what you will see happening this year, those of you who are paying attention to, shall we say, the happenings behind the scenes, or things that are not obvious. And you will not see them on the front pages of your newspapers!

But, nevertheless, those of you who are paying attention will see the “hand behind the scenes” guiding the changes that we are instituting now for the course of this country -- which we have had a great hand in founding, as well. And we do provide a certain level of, you might say, protection, as well as guidance for the course of events in your country. And, sometimes this is not talked about a great deal, but nevertheless it does occur. And we have many forces that we can operate to steer things in certain ways, when it is necessary, without affecting the free will of individuals.

Study and Observe in Order to Learn

And so, it is a very good thing that some of you are studying the events which are occurring, and much of this activity is within the political spectrum of events in this country, because it is going to be very interesting this year! And there will be much to be learned through observation of events, circumstances, and motives of leaders. And it is going to be a “tangled web” of deceit and intrigue, I’m afraid, for much of this year!

But then, for those of you that are closely watching, you will begin to see the “Rays of the Dawn Light” beginning to break through the clouds of deceit and selfish manipulation of power. So, this is going to be a very informative year, including a very fascinating series of events, for those of you that are following all of this activity. And that is what I would recommend to the students who are interested in this subject, because you can learn a great deal about the “operation of human consciousness” by watching what is going to happen this year. You will observe that there will be these naked attempts at grabbing power – and then you will see other energies, seemingly coming from nowhere, to have an opposite effect!

The Dance of Power and Intelligence

And so, this is going to be a fascinating “dance” of power and intelligence – which will be seen operating through your political systems. You don’t often get a chance to see things so clearly, in such a naked fashion, as these obvious grabs for power. The population will be greatly informed by this process. These people operate as if no one were watching! But fortunately, many are watching. The world is watching!

Many people are already becoming greatly informed by this process – which will eventually evolve into great surprise for the “puppet masters,” who would attempt to control the destiny of the United States of America. They do not realize that many of us, with great power and ability, stand just on the “other side of the veil,” where they cannot see with their earthly eyes. They cannot observe the huge energies that are building – to support freedom and liberty for the population.

So, yes, my dears, this is going to be a very interesting and informative series of events – the navigation of which will be a huge education for many! Some will learn the lessons, much to their benefit. Others will see their lives destroyed through exercising their freewill choice of flying in the face of Universal Law and Power.

Yes, it will be an interesting, and very informative year! So, focus your attention, because you have the opportunity to learn many things from what you will see and intelligently observe.

Our blessings to all of you, this is been a dual message from both Portia and Count St. Germain, who have had the pleasure of speaking with you. We appreciate your kind attention to what has been said.

Star's Note:

Lady Portia and Count St. Germain tell us that they have carried out dual roles in assisting the founders of the United States of America, acting as sources of guidance and inspiration. They assure us that they will “continue to guide, protect, and oversee the progress of this country.”

Count St. Germain tells us that he provided inspiration and guidance for the creation of both the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. Also, in order to promote freedom from oppression in this country, he consciously drew forth from the higher realms and anchored into every element of this process the powerful energies of The Violet Transmuting Flame – known as “Freedom’s Flame!”

Lady Portia has said that she acted as inspiration and provided much guidance toward the goal of freeing this country from British control. In her own words, with some humor, she describes it to us in this manner: “I was the instigator of what you now refer to as the Revolutionary War!” Many people perhaps are not aware that Lady Portia is, indeed, a very capable military leader, and might be described, in our way of speaking, as a “warrior goddess.”
